A composing tape of songs John was working on just prior to the "Get Back" sessions. He sings the first two takes of "Oh My Love" (Yoko's lyric set to John's music), while A3 consists of two Yoko performances. The latter of these (and the first few notes of A4) was aired on BBC Radio's Night Ride December 12th, 1968 (available on CDR).

A1, A2, and the first take of A3 were aired in LLT 90-12; a longer excerpt of A1 and the second take of A3 appeared in 91-29. A5 was aired in LLT 88-34, A6 in 88-19 and 90-13 (each a slightly different portion), A8 in 89-25 and A9 in LLT 89-27. The first 12:15 of this tape (A1-A4) has been liberated from the vaults, but has yet to be bootlegged.

A1 - YER BLUES/MICK AND JOHN [ROCK AND ROLL CIRCUS??]

68119-A

This is most likely the dialogue between John and Mick Jagger, including an impromptu duet of "Yer Blues", filmed by an Austrian TV crew December 11th, 1968. The crew was on the set of The Rolling Stones' Rock And Roll Circus to shoot footage of John and Yoko for a documentary which would accompany the premiere of their film Rape. This clip was aired on LLT 89-27.
