Although six of the Kinfauns demos here had been aired on The Lost Lennon Tapes (and bootied on the BAG series), the other five here were new, and all of them were taken from a copy of John's demo tape, not the radio series. Unfortunately, TMOQ (or their source) tacked on sound effects to most of these: a crying baby for "Cry Baby Cry", birds for "Child Of Nature", and so on. The rest of the material is copied from earlier bootlegs.
