One of the last great finds from the CBM family, even if they did get the date wrong. The source is a vintage radio broadcast which edits together performances from both Melbourne concerts (with some repetition of Paul's announcements). This album was the only source for most of the material until CDs in 1996 and 1999 offered the uncut tapes in improved quality.

The slipsheet shows The Beatles on stage in 1966, surrounded by Jimi Hendrix, The Rolling Stones, Buffalo Springfield, Richard Nixon, Albert Einstein, Fidel Castro, Bob Dylan, Joan Baez, Salvador Dali, Paul Newman, Gerald Ford, Adolf Hitler, Franklin Roosevelt, Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band, and Casey Stengel. I suspect it may not be an authentic photo.
